United States Naval Academy Class of 1963

We commemorate the 876 young men who graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy on 5 June 1963. They forged a brotherhood forever linked to one another as participants in key moments and events in American history.

In peace and war, their sacrifices are evoked in Academy lore and remembered by a grateful nation. They embraced the Academy's highest ideals of duty, honor and loyalty. Their leadership and example extended well beyond the defense of our country.

The men of the Class of 1963 assumed the highest responsibilities of governance and upheld an enduring sense of duty in both public service and their communities. For generations to come, the establishment and funding of the Class of 1963 Center for Academic Excellence at the Naval Academy will be its living legacy and inspiration to the future leaders who succeed
