

Brooklyn prior to entering West Point on a Congressional appointment. While at the Point, Barry was a member of the Newman club, pistol and sportsmen's clubs. He will be assigned to the Signal Corps.

NAVY

Robert G. Nobbs, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucile G. Nobbs of 72-61 113th St., Forest Hills, entered Annapolis on a reserve quota appointment after serving in the Naval Reserve as a seaman apprentice. Prior to entering the service, Nobbs graduated from Regis HS and attended Fordham University. While at the Academy he participated in intramural sports and was president of the French Club and a member of the Catholic choir and the Newman Club.

Mario P. Fiori, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Silvano L. Fiori, of 8659 16th Ave., Brooklyn, entered the Academy on a qualified alternate appointment after graduating from Brooklyn Technical HS. While at Annapolis, Fiori participated in cross-country, knock about sailing and rowed with the plebe crew. He was a member of the Newman Club, king and crest committee and the German Club.

graduating class for post-graduate work after a year of sea duty. He is Mario P. Fiori, son of Mr. and Mrs. Silvano L. Fiori of 8659 16th Ave., who will pursue nuclear engineering. President Kennedy will make the commencement address to 503 cadets at the AF Academy, Colorado Springs, and Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson will address the 887 midshipmen at the Naval Academy, Annapolis. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, will speak before 500 cadets at West Point. The 94 graduates at the Coast Guard Academy, New London, Conn., will hear Lt. Gen. Garrison H. Davidson, commanding general of the 1st Army. (Herewith, THE NEWS presents the graduates in your area.)

Alan B. Taylor, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Taylor, of 1516 Brooklyn Ave., Brooklyn, participated in cross-country, handball, softball and was handball manager for the 1st Battalion while at the Academy. He was graduated from Brooklyn Technical HS and attended Brooklyn College before gaining admission to Annapolis on a Congressional appointment.

William J. Beck 3d, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Beck Jr., of 91-53 98th St., Woodhaven, will be commissioned a second Lieutenant in the Air Force upon graduation. While at the Academy he was on the baseball and swimming teams and was enrolled in the Newman and French Clubs. He will report for duty at the Bolling Air Force Base in Washington, D.C.

John J. Pfeiffer 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Pfeiffer of 123-01 14th Ave., College Point, graduated from Bishop Loughlin Memorial HS and attended New York State Maritime College before entering Annapolis on a Congressional appointment. While at the Academy he was a member of the varsity swimming and water polo teams, the Catholic choir, Log Magazine, Splinter staff and the Newman Club.

Holger G. Ericsson, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Holger G. Ericsson, of 40 McDonough St., Brooklyn, entered the Academy on a fleet appointment and will be commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Marine Corps upon graduation. He played rugby and was a member of the Drum and Bugle Corps while at Annapolis. He will report for duty at the Marine Corps Basic Officers School in Quantico, Va.

Peter R. Peroni, 21, son of Mrs. Kathleen D. Peroni of 180 Beach 117th St., Belle Harbor, entered the Academy on a Congressional appointment after graduating from Power Memorial Academy. While at Annapolis, Peroni played intramural football, soccer, squash and basketball and was a member of the Newman Club. After graduation, he will report for pilot training at Pensacola, Fla.

James C. Garde, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Garde of 1225 E. 28th St., Brooklyn, entered Annapolis on a Congressional appointment after participating in football and water polo. After graduation, Garde will report for duty at the Nuclear Power School in Baltimore, Md., as an ensign.

Lawrence I. Astor, 21, son of Irwin D. Astor, of 62-82 Saunders St., Rego Park, was graduated from Forest Hills HS prior to entering Annapolis on a Congressional appointment. While at the Academy, Astor participated with varsity and plebe track teams and intramurals. He will be assigned to the Naval Air Training Center at Pensacola, Fla.

Paul Schleifer, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schleifer of 63-10 108th St., Forest Hills, will report for duty as an ensign at the Nuclear Power School in Baltimore, Md., after graduation. He entered the Academy after graduating from Forest Hills HS and while at the Academy participated in gymnastics, ocean sailing and was a member of the French and Gun Clubs.

(More Grads on Back Page)

IS HORSE RACING A WOMAN'S GAME?—SEE SECTION TWO

BROOKLYN SECTION KINGS COUNTY SECTION TWO

BROOKLYN SECTION SUNDAY NEWS NEW YORK'S PICTURE NEWSPAPER

LARGEST CIRCULATION ON LONG ISLAND

Copyright 1963 News Syndicate Co., Inc.

New York 17, N.Y., Sunday, June 2, 1963

ARMY

James M. O'Connor, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. O'Connor, of 20-01 27th St., Astoria, was appointed to West Point as a result of a competitive regular Army examination. While there, he was a member of the handball and bowling clubs and was active on the Debate Council and Forum and the Rocket Society and the German Language Club.

Robert M. Clements, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clements, of 30-15 219th St., Queens Village, is a graduate of Brooklyn Technical HS and was appointed to West Point as a qualified alternate. While at the Point, Clements was active in the German Language Club. He will be commissioned a 2d Lieutenant in the Air Force.

Michael J. Barry, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Barry, of 560 Lincoln Place, Brooklyn, graduated from Bishop Loughlin HS and attended Polytechnic Michael S. McCormack, 21, son of Michael H. McCormack, of 30-16 48th St., Long Island City, was on the Army's varsity track team while at West Point. He also was a member of the cadet chapel acolytes and active in the French language and Camera Clubs. Appointed to the Academy on a Congressional appointment, McCormack was a cadet lieutenant during his senior year.

George A. Orlicki, 22, son of Mrs. Jennie S. Orlicki, of 41-24 63rd St., Woodside, graduated from St. Francis Xavier HS and attended Manhattan College before entering West Point on a Congressional appointment. While at the Academy, Orlicki was a member of the cadet dance club, the hop and social committee and the ski club. He was also active in the cadet chapel choir and German Language Club.

Richard C. Gallagher, 22, son of Mrs. Catherine Gallagher of 474 8th St., Brooklyn, was a member of the French Language Club and cadet chapel choir and was active in the camera, handball and ski clubs while at the Academy. A graduate of De La Salle Institute, Gallagher attended Manhattan College prior to entering West Point on a Senatorial appointment.

Richard A. Cuneo, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Cuneo, of 2981 Avenue T, Brooklyn, will be commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Air Force upon graduation. He was graduated from Brooklyn Preparatory School and attended the University of Detroit prior to entering the Academy. While at Annapolis, Cuneo was on the baseball team and was a member of the Aeronautical Club. He will report to Reese Air Force Base at Lubbock, Tex., for flight training.

James C. Singler, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Singler of 85-19 106th St., Richmond Hill, while at the Academy, participated in plebe and battalion crew and company fieldball and volleyball. He also was a member of the Spanish and Newman Clubs. A graduate of St. John's Preparatory School, Singler will be assigned to Newport, R.I.

Peter T. Deutermann, 21, son of Vice Adm. and Mrs. T. Deutermann of Admirals House at the U.S. Naval Shipyard.

OUR SERVICE GRADS MEN of LETTERS USMA USNA USAF USCG

By ANTHONY MARINO
The nation's armed strength will be augmented this week by 1,984 newly commissioned officers, who will be graduated in impressive ceremonies Wednesday at the U.S. Military, Naval, Air Force and Coast Guard Academies. Among the young men picked for the responsibility of leading our defense forces in times of crisis are 34 from the Brooklyn-Queens-Long Island area. All will receive commissions of second lieutenant or ensign and Bachelor of Science degrees. A Brooklyn student is among five Navy men selected from the Annapolis

WEDNESDAY

JUNE 5, 1963

Brooklyn World

The Sun

John Castro

Richard E. Cuneo

Mario P. Fiori

Kenneth R. McGuire

Service Academies Graduate Many

The service academies today graduated a bumper crop of Brooklyn boys.

Seventeen youths got their commissions and diplomas: two from West Point; eight from Annapolis; one from the Coast Guard Academy, and six from the Air Force Academy.

At West Point

Michael J. Barry became a second lieutenant in the signal corps. He is a graduate of Bishop Loughlin High School and attended Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn. He was appointed to the academy by Rep. Edna F. Kelly (D., N.Y.). He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Barry of 560 Lincoln Pl., Park Slope.

Richard C. Gallagher got his commission as a second lieutenant in armor. He was graduated from De La Salle Institute and also attended Manhattan College. Gallagher is the son of Mrs. Catherine Gallagher of 474 Eighth St., Park Slope. He received his appointment through the late Sen. Irving M. Ives (R., N.Y.).

At Annapolis

John Castro was commissioned an ensign. He is an alumnus of Brooklyn Technical High School and Polytechnic Institute of Brooklyn. Castro will be assigned to the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Castro, 345 E. 35 th was in the Navy when he received his appointment to the academy. Ericsson's parents live at 40 MacDonough St., Bedford-Stuyvesant. He will be assigned to the Marine Corps Basic Officers School, Quantico, Va.

Mario P. Fiori, son of Mr. and Mrs. Silvano L. Fiori, 8659 16th Ave., Bensonhurst, was commissioned as ensign. Fiori's a graduate of Brooklyn Tech High School. He will be stationed at New London, Conn.

James C. Garde got an ensign's commission. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Garde of 1225 E. 28th St., Flatlands. Garde will be assigned to Nuclear Power School in Bainbridge, Md.

Kenneth R. McGuire, a graduate of Xavier High School, was commissioned an ensign. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. McGuire, 65 Waldorf Court, Bay Ridge. He will report to his duty station at Long Beach, Calif.

Alan B. Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Taylor of 1516 Brooklyn Ave., East Flatbush, got an ensign's commission. Taylor was graduated from Brooklyn Technical High School and attended Brooklyn College. He will be stationed at Alameda, Calif.

At New London

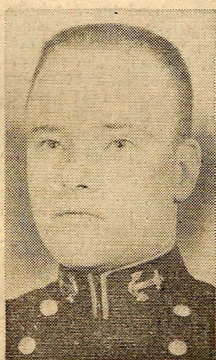

Robert E. P. Fenton, son of

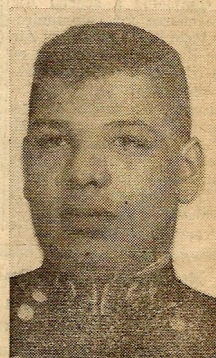

James C. Garde

Alan B. Taylor

Peter T. Deutermann

Holger G. Ericsson

lot training at Reese Air Force Base, Tex. Saban is the son of Mrs. Natalie Saban Margolis of 2215 Cropsey Ave., Bensonhurst.

Dean St., Bedford-Stuyvesant, will report as a second lieutenant to Laredo Air Force Base, Tex. Sims was graduated from Tilden High School and also attended Howard

Court Hide To Sp

Major
Get M
To Ha

They at the court ests of s
down at 1
St. again.

Since co
and the co district cou
the landlor of the Civ heard at t
120 Scher

Adolescen
the busiest crowded in room in the Part 1 A, a felonies a were heard before one clerks assis processed
September

Monday
In what co one of the moves since tion the La Term of the move from
St. down Schermerho housed Gi until last that court
Family Cou

The room landlord an be used by 1 B of the
This part h share the v
the arraig felonies an

The Adol move Mond room on th
one of the
in the buil floor.

Old Tra